AT THE THEATERS

"When Dreams Come True."

(At the Atlanta.)

"When Dreams Come True" was the season-opener at the Atlanta theater last night.

The show itself is a musical comedy of no particular merit, although there are in the score one or two catchy airs, notably a waltz song of the name "The Show."

It seems as though we have lost its vitality when it was young. The costumes were fresh, and some of the actors were clever.

Several exhibitions of modern dances and a pantomime picture were presented by the monitory of the rest of the performance.

The story is of a young millionaire who is forced, through his extravagance, to leave his home and go to the city. He is there met by a girl who is his sister, and he is forced to leave her. He then goes to the city and is met by a girl who is his sister, and he is forced to leave her.

COOL WAVE IS COMING TO RELIEF OF SOUTH

Washington, September 19.—Near freezing weather in the northwest is sending a cool wave to the relief of the east and south. Where midsummer temperatures have prevailed during the past few days. Weather bureaus forecast rain and temperatures in the 50's tonight that by tomorrow night or Sunday it would be decidedly cooler everywhere except along the South Atlantic coast.

Macon and Thomasville, Ga., and Apalachicola, Fla., are the warmest cities in the South. The hottest towns in the United States today.
